

AQS 111 : Aquarium Science Practicum 2

Builds upon the experiences gained in Practicum 1. Involves participation in a higher level of aquatic animal husbandry activities including animal health procedures, long-term record keeping and life support systems training.

Credits 2

Subject

Aquarium Science

Course Outcomes

- Apply aquatic animal husbandry skills with captive aquatic animals.
- Assess operational issues in order to improve animal care.
- Diagram the flow of water from its source to its discharge location.
- Organize and communicate system and animal observations in a clear, concise manner.